

Paul Martin Vice President of Product Engineering Calabrio, Inc.

Paul Martin is the Vice President of Product Engineering and Operations for Calabrio, Inc.

Paul has more than 20 years of experience in the engineering, manufacturing and technical support industries. Prior to the Spanlink Communications and Calabrio split, Paul was the Vice President of Research and Development at Spanlink.

Before joining Spanlink, Paul was the Vice President of Product Engineering and Offshore Operations at McDATA (formerly Computer Network Technology Corporation). He also held numerous positions in his tenure at McDATA which included VP of Channel Extension Business Unit, VP of Product Operations and Integration and VP of Engineering. Prior to that, Paul held various leadership and technical positions at IBM/Pencom Software and Medic Computer Systems.

Paul has a B.S. degree in Computer Science with a Minor in Business from the University of Louisiana and an Executive Masters of Business Administration degree from the University of Minnesota.